1) I have no recollection of having seen any file relating to our Santis letters in Bahgelore - if there were any papers they should have been in the Dewan's office - The P.S.D says there are none: it is just possible there were no papers at all but action was taken on personal instructions given to the officers concerned -

Dear Mr. Govinda Rao,

I hope you remember the incident in 1910 about a lecture proposed to be delivered by Mr. Srinivasa Sastri. Government did not permit him to deliver the lecture. Can you kindly let me know whether there was any official or demi-official correspondence on the subject and if so where the confidential papers were kept. I shall be glad if you can give any clue to trace these papers.

Yours sincerely,
